Landrum Taylor statement on ASU fraternity party

STATE CAPITOL, PHOENIX – Senator Leah Landrum Taylor released the following statement on ASU fraternity Tau Kappa Epsilon’s distasteful Martin Luther King Jr. party:

“It is sad that this group of students chose to mock African Americans at all, let alone on a day when our communities celebrate their diversity and unity in honor of Dr. King's legacy," said Sen. Landrum Taylor.

“However, this display of cultural ignorance is something that should not be viewed as a reflection on our state. I have complete confidence in my alma mater that this matter will be handled with appropriate action.”
